

Norberto Terrazas is a career diplomat. Mr. Terrazas holds a Masters in Public Administration from Columbia University in New York and is a Ph D candidate in Politics from New York University. In 1995 he was posted to the Permanent Mission of Mexico to the United Nations, where he represented Mexico as Observer in the Executive Boards of the United Nations Development Program (UNDP) and the United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA). In 1997, he served as Consul for Legal Affairs at the Consulate General of Mexico in New York. In 2005 Mr. Terrazas took a leave of absence from the Mexican Foreign Service to join the immigration firm Barst & Mukamal LLP in New York City, as an Associate Attorney. He returned to the Mexican Foreign Service in 2007 and served as Head of the Mexican Foreign Ministry's Agency in Tijuana, Mexico. In September 2009, he was appointed Deputy Consul General of Mexico in Houston. He is an Attorney at Law licensed in Mexico and New York.