

HOUSTON HISPANIC CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
The Leader of Houston's New Majority™
IIICC CORPORATE SPONSORS

BENEFACTOR

TITANIUM

PREMIUM PLATINUM

PLATINUM

GOLD

SILVER

Comcast's commitment to Houston's Hispanic community

IN THE COMMUNITY: Brian Roberts, Comcast Chairman and CEO and Tony Speller, senior vice president of Comcast's Houston Region meet with Karen Bocoma, Board President for the Tejano Center and Richard Farias, President & CEO of the Tejano Center for Community Concerns during Comcast Cares Day.

Company's commitment seen through community investment

Comcast's Houston Region invests in a number of organizations that serve the Hispanic community. Comcast is a member of the Houston Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, a strong supporter of the League of United Latin American Citizens and a national sponsor of the National Council of La Raza.

Comcast's Houston Region invests in a number of organizations that serve the Hispanic community. Comcast is a member of the Houston Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, a strong supporter of the League of United Latin American Citizens and a national sponsor of the National Council of La Raza.

Comcast also partners with other organizations whose beneficiaries include the Hispanic community including the Association for the Advancement of Mexican Americans (AAMA), La Rosa Family Services, The Tejano Center for Community Concerns, Houston Read Commission, Boys' and Girls' Clubs, YMCA, Career and Recovery Resources, Literacy Advance, Communities in Schools, Neighborhood Centers, Fifth Ward Enrichment and the Precinct2gether Youth Program.

"Comcast has a strong commitment to diversity and inclusion at every level of our company, from the products and services we offer our customers, to our partnerships with nonprofit organizations, to our workforce and workplace environment," said Tony Speller, Senior Vice President for Comcast's Houston Region.

